

Robbie Raccoon and the Big Black Blob

Raccoons are curious by nature and love to eat just about anything. Robbie and Ricki are no different. When mother raccoon is not around they learn a valuable lesson when they take off on an adventure to find out what smells so scrumptious. Robbie Raccoon and The Big Black Blob is a fun, lesson-filled story told from an inquisitive raccoons perspective. Reviews: A story as charmingly sweet as the big black blob itself. Ted Staunton - <http://www.tedstauntonbooks.com> Author of Puddleman, one of Canadas most perennially popular picture books Robbie and Ricki are young, hungry raccoons whose curiosity lands them in a sticky situation. A delightful tale of what can happen when Mom is away and two adventurous youngsters decide to let their noses take them on a delicious but dangerous adventure. David Milliken, retired Senior Vice President, Canada News Wire Ltd. Irene Davidson Fishers debut is a charmer that will be especially fun bedtime reading for anyone whos camping, at the cottage, or who wishes they were. Edward Kay, Author of Sink and Destroy, STAR Academy, and Dark Secrets
