

Tiger Tames the Min Min (Project Earth-mend Book 3)

The third in the Project Earth-mend Series of environmentally conscious but enjoyable novels for kids who want to learn about how to save the Earth. After their early success with Project Earth-Mend in The Greenhouse Effect and Global Cooling, Tiger the Cat heads for the Australian Outback with his friends Wanda the Blue-tongue and the magical extraterrestrial Tark (who is disguised most of the time as a frog, but who can shape change at will into characters like Elvis Presley or Madonna) and the spaced out crow Syd to spread the word about how to save the Earth. They pick up a new convert, Number 12, a camel who's just retired from his racing career who leads them across the Simpson Desert to Lake Eyre, then down to the Nullarbor Plain before heading to the Red Centre in search of the mysterious Min Min Lights and The Kangaroo who has the power to enlist more Native Species in the quest to save Earth from The Great Danger. But will the crew ever find The Kangaroo, when, at every turn, the Min Min Lights try to unroll all the good they have achieved so far in Project Earth-mend? Dr David P Reiter is a multi-award winning author and publisher living in Brisbane, Australia. He has written 20 fiction, poetry and childrens titles, as well as scripts and multimedia.
