

Winter Wishes: A Story of Kindness and Compassion

The snowy school grounds are a winter wonderland for Amber until she befriends Taylor and realizes that winter can be a hardship for kids who don't have warm clothes. After a small act of kindness allows Amber to help Taylor enjoy winter, Amber wants to help other kids in need. Can she make someone else's winter wish come true? This book helps children understand that some people don't have what they need and how kids can make a difference. Also included are tips for parents and educators on fostering kindness and compassion in children and eight activity pages that reinforce the concept of compassion. There are printable activity pages available for this title at CounselingwithHEART.com Grades K-6, Softcover, 40 pages
