

Robby Le Canard (French Edition)

Le soleil se couchait, se reflétant sur leau de letang en contrebas. Robby le canard battait des ailes aussi fort quil le pouvait pour gagner un peu plus daltitude. Le vent soufflait froid et fort dans son visage, et le soleil rechauffait son dos. En atteignant le sommet de son ascension, il a ralenti le battement de ses ailes, son bec sest tourne vers le vers le sol qui se trouvait bien au-dessous de lui. Il a ensuite replie ses ailes le long de son corps, ne laissant que les bords etroits de ses ailes deployes dans le vent. Il baissa la tete et commença une plongee abrupte, il volait a travers les nuages. Le vent hurlait dans ses oreilles, et il devait garder ses yeux presque completement fermes pour les proteger du vent. En quelques secondes, il se mit a se deplacer tres rapidement, 90 kilometres / heure, puis 100. Le vent hurlait comme le bruit des feux dartifice du Quatorze Juillet; il etait si fort quil lui faisait mal aux oreilles, et le sol continuait de se rapprocher a une vitesse effrayante. Robby etait un canard courageux, mais il savait que les canards netaient pas faits pour voler a cette vitesse et il commença a avoir peur.

Lorsque la peur devint trop forte, il inclina legerement son aile droite pour ralentir sa descente. Mais il etait trop tard; son aile attrapa le vent, et le fit rouler vers la gauche, avant de perdre le controle et de partir en vrille. Au fur et a mesure que le sol se rapprochait, il tournoyait, completement hors de controle. La peur au ventre, il laissa echapper un cri de terreur. Dun coup, tout est devenu noir. Le cri reveilla les autres jouets dans la chambre ou vivait Robby. Le vieil elephant en peluche qui etait assis sur les etageres situees au-dessus du lit avait lair fatiguees et deprimees. En train de rever que tu voles a nouveau, Robby? lui demanda-t-il dun ton agressif. Les autres jouets eclaterent de rire. Le vieil ours brun qui etait assis dans le coin du lit sourit. Stupide Canard, dit-t-il.

Quand apprendras-tu que les canards en caoutchouc ne peuvent pas voler?
